Amdt. dated June 7, 2005
Reply to Office Action of December 7, 2004

Docket No. YHK-0118

Amendments to the Specification:

As required by the examiner, Applicant is providing herewith a substitute specification in which the clerical, typographical, syntactic and/or grammatical errors noted by the examiner and/or ascertained by the undersigned have been corrected. Attached to this paper is a copy of the substitute specification containing markings that show all the changes relative to the original specification. Also attached to this paper is a clean copy of the substitute specification.

The undersigned hereby states that the substitute specification contains no new matter.
